

Your expert guide to all things Totara

In the Totara Academy, you'll find a comprehensive set of courses to help you on your way to success with your Totara products. From short 'how to' videos, to feature-focused courses and fully certified, role-based programs, the Academy has everything you need to upskill yourself and your team.

And we don't just focus on which buttons to push. Enrol in our courses to develop both your product knowledge and your ability to design and deliver effective learning and performance management that has a real, positive impact on your people and your business.

I think it is the best open available source of enablement for an LMS solution I've ever seen."
