RoSPA assured Health & Safety Courses

With over 100 RoSPA assured and CPD certified courses to choose from, this catalogue will help you achieve your health and safety compliance goals efficiently and effectively.

Whether your organisation needs to get 2,000 employees easily compliant, align training for remote teams, ensure contractors are safe to work on-site, get temp staff on the shop floor quickly or your small team feeling valued - the inclusion of health and safety related courses in your training armoury really raises your profile as an employer.

With titles suitable for all staff or people in specialist roles/circumstances, or if your managers need some guidance, this catalogue from Access can meet the ever increasing demands of the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) regulations. DSE, Manual Handling, Fire Safety, and many more topics are covered in this health and safety eLearning catalogue.

All relevant Health & Safety courses have been RoSPA assured.

*Please note that these courses have not been assured by RoSPA as RoSPA does not have access to the required expert knowledge in these subjects or the type of activity requires specialist additional training (such as Driving).

Environmental and Social

Environmental and Social

An organisation's purpose can only be fulfilled if both environmental and social challenges are considered together. Environmental risks threaten economic growth and meanwhile a combination of changing consumer preferences, employee attitudes and emerging regulation prompts organisations to increase their focus on social aspects. These activities will help you ensure environmental and social risks are an integral component of strategy.

Governance, Risk, Regulatory and Compliance for Law Firms

Training to help meet SRA and LEXCEL requirements

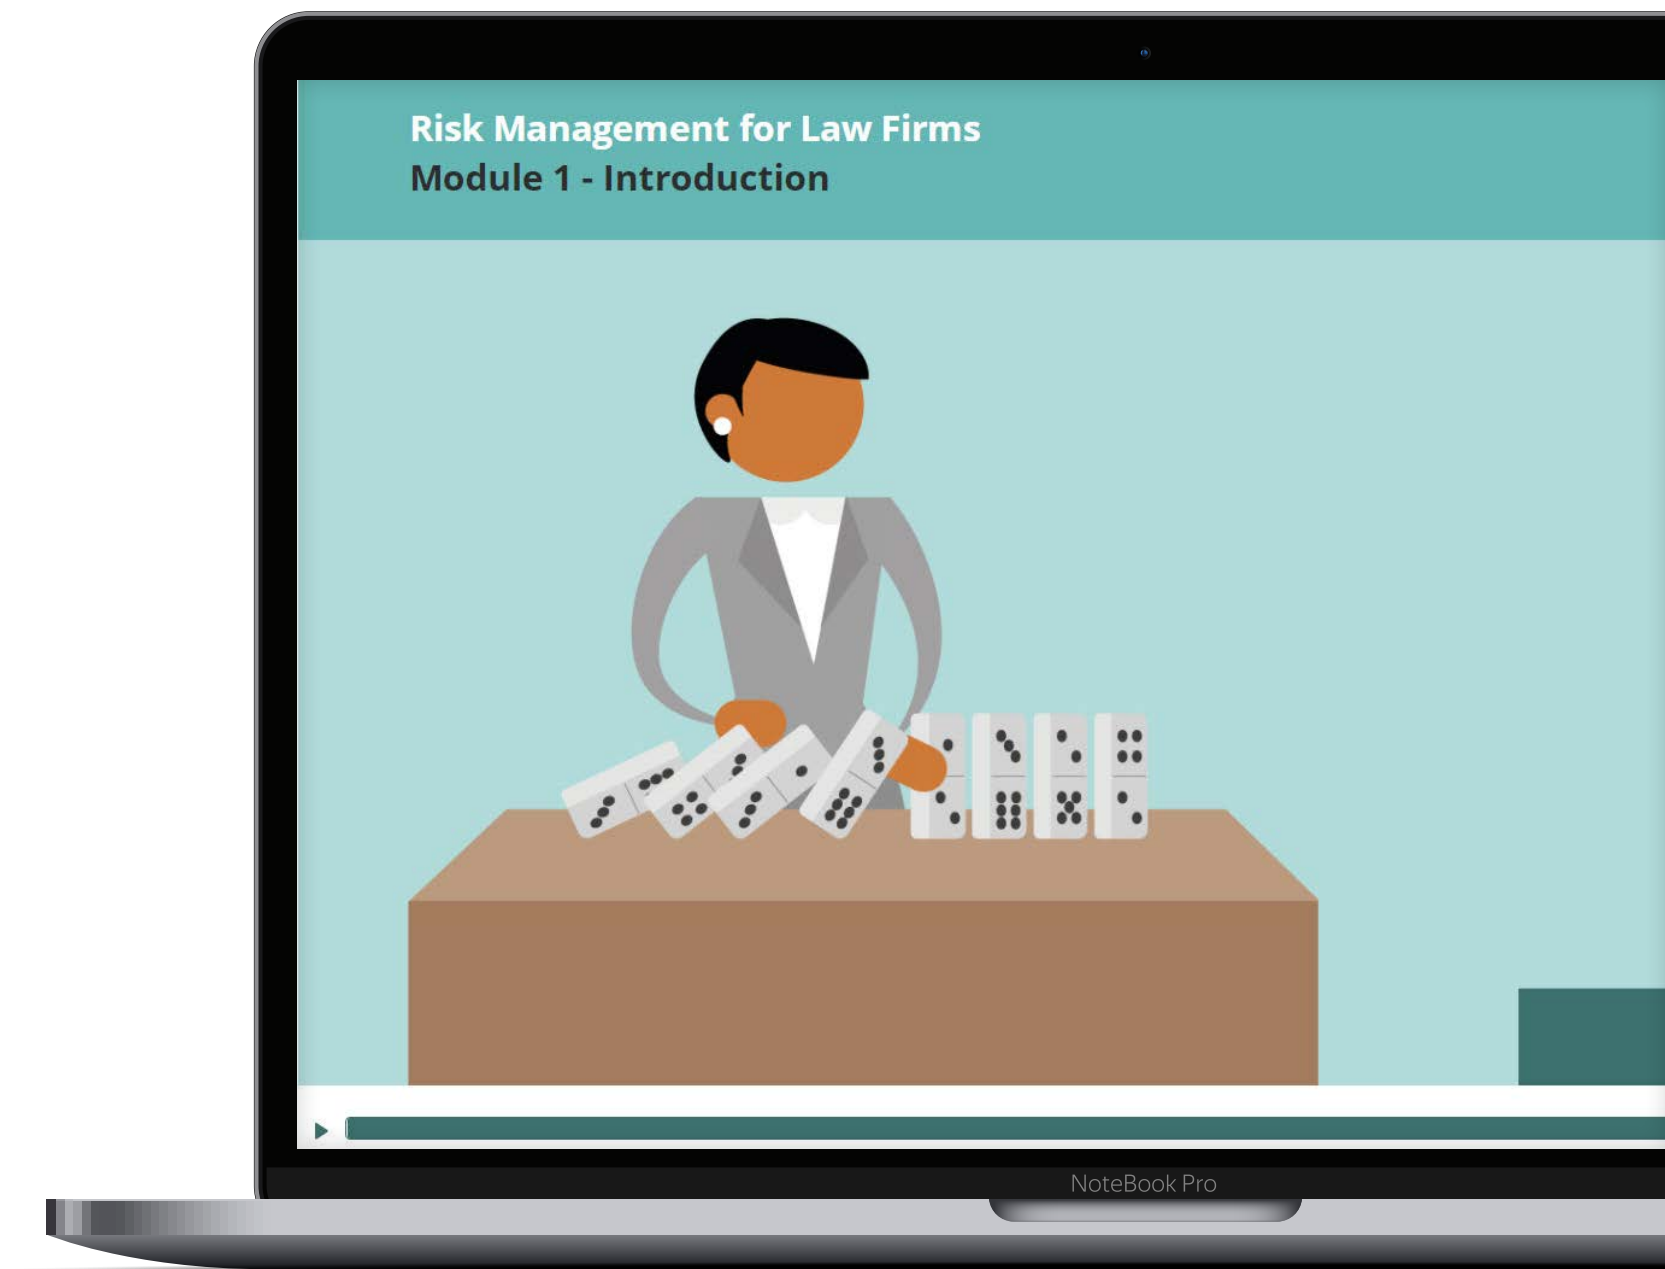

The UK's legal sector is respected around the world. Underpinning the UK legal sector is an extensive list of regulation and quality standards that firms are required to follow. This ensures the quality of legal advice and outcomes for clients is always exceptional.

The Access Group provides software, services and training designed to make the job of complying with the expanding list of regulations easier for firms. We work with firms of all sizes and understand that each has its own compliance challenges and outlook, and wants easy to use and effective solutions.

This collection of interactive eLearning and webinars is a specialist suite designed to support law firms with governance, risk and compliance training. Specialist courses help law firms meet the standards and requirements set out by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA) and LEXCEL. A wide range of subjects are covered including Anti-Money Laundering, Code of Conduct & CQS. All courses are written with the assistance of Subject Matter Experts from the legal industry.
